

i support satallite radio in every way, it's private and therefore should not be tampered with by big government, like cable tv, it's private you pay for it and should be left alone and supported..